

Welcome to the Conference Ecology and Forests for Public Health

18.-20. September 2009 at Soria Moria Hotel in Oslo, Norway

MEDIZINISCHE UNIVERSITÄT
INNSBRUCK

NaCuHeal
International

University of Oslo

The Aim of the Conference

is to focus on environmental, climatic and cultural changes that threaten the Public's Health today. This event will analyze the importance of ecology and forests for people on our planet. A wide range of aspects therefore will be addressed through key-note speakers, submitted abstracts, workshops and side events. Subthemes like vocational rehabilitation in nature, recreation, physical activity, well-being and out-door life (friluftsliv), farming for health etc. are also planned as part of the programme.

Call for abstracts:

Late abstracts will be received until 15th of July.

Scientific abstracts to: David.Schnaiter@i-med.ac.at

Practical/policy abstracts to: meretefuruberg@gmail.com

Pre- and Post-Conference Meetings and Excursions

Sigdal/Trillemarka, Buskerud County 16. -18. September.

Finnskogen, Hedmark County 21. - 22. September.

Conference Address:

Prof. Gunnar Tellnes IASAM, Univ. of Oslo, PO Box 1130 Blindern, NO-0318 Oslo, Norway. www.tellnes.info

For more information see: www.nacuheal.net

Welcome to Norway and <http://uk.soriamoria.no>

Expected Outcomes

The conference is a joint endeavour of researches, policy makers and practitioners. Proposals for policies, practical solutions and further research will be developed.

Organized by

Nature-Culture-Health International (NaCuHeal Int.) in cooperation with International Academy of Science – Health & Ecology, University of Oslo, Medical University of Innsbruck, Hedmark University College, Norwegian Public Health Association, IUFRO: "Task Force Forests and Human Health" and "Research Group Gender and Forestry", UNESCO (UN Int. Ecological Safety Cooperative Organization), Norwegian Forestry Society, NaKuHel Sigdal, and The Norwegian Organization Women in Forestry.

Conference homepage: www.nacuheal.net

Foto: Gunnar Tellnes

Foto: Ron Bruinvis